Description of Invention:
Please preserve all records of the invention and attach additional pages for the following. Each additional page should be signed and dated by the inventor(s) and witnessed.
A. Description of the construction and operation of the invention (includes appropriate schematic, block diagram, drawings, graphs, flowcharts, computer usage, test results, etc.)
Print both on vendors web site, send catalog "print job" directly to printer, instead of opening Acrobat reader Based on size of print job may take a while to print, so print manager must be "saved" enough to allocate print job to printer in sections
B. Advantages of the invention over what has been done before.
Potential consumer gets more information faster, can make better decision about purchasing faster with more information than what may be found on just a web site
C. Problems solved by the invention.
Potential customer gets a hard copy of the e-commerce catalog, no waiting for mail. Most e-commerce web sites do not have level of detail high enough for consumer to make purchasing decision. Saves postage costs.
D. Prior solutions and their disadvantages (if available, attach copies of product literature, technical writing, patents, etc.)
Current system uses Acrobat reader to load then user is able to print catalog.
